

Flint – Character Sheet

Stats

Gender: Male
Age: 26

Role

Flint is Thorn's older brother and the eldest among the siblings. Their parents are the only ones who truly understand Flint's weighty feeling of responsibility, in a sense being both a leader to and representative of his siblings and hence often the bearer of the brunt in any tough situation.

Despite being furthest from Thorn in age, he and Flint share a special connection in that they're both sensitive and emotional and often feel the weight of the world on their shoulders.

Story Overview

Character Plot

Flint leads the search party to find Thorn, racked with guilt for not giving him the attention he apparently needed. Still, he's confident that Thorn will pull through. The final battle is won because he and Thorn finally learn how to work together.

Character Arc

Thanks to a stressful life and a solemn father figure, Flint is somewhat reserved, more often speaking on his work rather than his emotions. It's only the quieter moments with his more lighthearted family members that he lets his more humorous side out.

Thorn's success makes Flint proud and grateful that he was able to have some positive influence on his little brother.

Example Moments

In the midst of a hunt: "Quiet now. Listen. What do you hear?"

Seeing Thorn's new appearance: "Who's this guy? What'd you do with my brother?!"

After a heart-to-heart with Thorn: "Just make me a promise: Next time you run away, take me with you. I don't think I can take any more of Dad's boring hunting stories..."
